VOL. XXVII

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO, SAN MATEO COUNTY, CAL., FRIDAY, JANUARY 16, 1920.

NO. 3

S. F. BIDS J. B. FAREWELL AGAIN

GAY CITY BY THE BAY STAGES MANY FUNERAL CEREMONIES FOR JOHN BARLEYCORN; SOME GAY, SOME SOLEMN.

Although J. B. Corn will not be officially buried till midnight tonight, obsequies were held for this much-harried individual in many parts of San Francisco Thursday night. Scenes staged were similar to those in which his coming departure was mourned January 1st.

Not all San Francisco assisted in this premature wake of an erstwhile popular idol, but the Latin Quarter rose nobly to the occasion and did its best fitly to celebrate the last glad night on earth of what has been its drink and almost its meat from the cradle.

Dinners, dances, songs, tears, and kisses, all were blended in the final adieux to those things that make life livable to many millions of mortals. Gallant men and pretty women toasted each other merrily, glasses clinked a little—not much—Chianti spilled about the floor. Everybody was happy as happy could be; laughter shook the rafters.

"Never again," they figured, "can we be happy in our own way! Let's make the best of the last of it!"

And they made the best of it they could.

Whether they went late or early, it was not until all was over that they began to go away. Automobiles were parked all over the place. The Latin Quarter was concentrating the sorrow of the occasion, but the real mourners were not Luigi and Fiammetta, nor Domenico and Maria, but Bill and Jane from far outside the pale of what is vulgarly known as Little Italy.

In many places in the city ceremonies for the nearly departed were held, some decidedly gay, some mock-solemn; some, in churches, of a religious and thanksgiving nature. Many other similar events are planned for this evening.

"Y" TEAM PLAYS OAKLAND BASKETBALL

The Y. M. C. A. basketball team went down to defeat before a team of "Y" men from Oakland Friday night, the game, staged at the local high school gymnasium, being staged before an audience of interested friends and rooters. The local players put up a good game, but showed lack of practice. The South San Francisco team was organized only a short time ago and several of the players have done little work as yet. The Oakland men displayed splendid team work and organization. The score was 46 to 15. A return game will be played at the Oakland Y. M. C. A. building January 24th.

Tonight the local team will play a team from the Redwood City Athletic Club at the high school in this city and in the near future will play a team from the San Francisco Y. M. C. A. The public is invited to all these games.

The names of the South San Francisco players are Carden, Burrell, Mahoney, Batcher, Hannon, and Sani, the team being in charge of the "Y" physical director, Glenn L. Williams.

FRENCH PRIESTS COME TO VISIT THE UNITED STATES

This party of French priests has just arrived in the United States for a visit. Left to right they are: Father Jan Bloyet, who served in the French infantry, was wounded and won the War Cross; Monsignor Conan, archbishop of Haiti, and Father Pessel.

K. OF C. PLAN FOR VOCATIONAL SCHOOL

Free Instruction by Experienced Teachers to Be Offered Soon at K. C. Bldg., San Mateo.

Under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus there will be opened in San Mateo shortly a vocational school for ex-service men that will fill an important place in the educational life of San Mateo county. This school is to be established with part of the reserve of funds apportioned to the K. of C. for war work after the great war fund drive of the latter part of 1918. Some $12,000,000 of the Knights' share of this fund was left unexpended at the close of the war, and is in this way to be used for the benefit of the men for whom it was intended.

The school in San Mateo will be opened in the K. of C. building there as soon as the class rooms can be arranged and the necessary teachers secured. All services are to be free to all ex-service men, regardless of race or creed, and many have already signified their intention to attend. County Auditor J. J. Shields of Redwood City and J. J. Jones of San Bruno attended the meeting of the local post of the American Legion last Friday night and explained the plan of the proposed school to the members in attendance, with the result that there will probably be between fifteen and twenty go to the institution from this city. Transportation will be arranged by having a bus from this city to San Mateo through San Bruno nightly, this service being furnished at about $3 a month.

It is planned to have all kinds of vocational training taught at the school, but regular public school work will also be given, so that even a high school graduate who wishes to specialize in some study may do so. The free use of the K. of C. splendid gymnasium and billiard room will also be placed at the men's disposal without charge.

To obtain the school for this county it is necessary that 100 men sign up for instruction, but there is every indication that a number far in excess of that figure will be secured.

ATTEND INSTALLATION AT SAN FRANCISCO LODGE

A party of officers and members of the Fraternal Brotherhood went to San Francisco Thursday night to attend installation ceremonies. There were twenty-two in the party from this city.

DR. M'GOVERN WILL HEAD C. OF C.

ELECTION HELD TUESDAY PUTS DR. DOLLEY IN AS VICE-PRES., ED KAUFFMANN AS TREASURER, ROBERT SPEED AS SECRETARY

It was an unusually large and enthusiastic gathering of members of the South San Francisco Chamber of Commerce that assembled at the city hall Tuesday evening for the annual election that placed Dr. J. C. McGovern in the president's chair for the coming year. Other officers were elected as follows: Vice-president, Dr. F. S. Dolley; treasurer, E. P. Kauffmann; secretary, Robert Speed; directors—J. O. Snyder, Andrew Hynding, P. R. Thompson, W. J. Martin, and J. W. Coleberd. Following the election a resolution was adopted by the members thanking the retiring president, W. H. Dinning; retiring secretary, J. G. Walker, and other officers of the past year for their faithful and untiring efforts in behalf of the Chamber of Commerce and of South San Francisco. Called upon for a speech, Dr. J. C. McGovern, newly elected president, responded with a graceful tribute to the retiring officers and their work, at the same time expressing his appreciation for his election. Dr. McGovern also urged all members to attend meetings during the year to come and lend their personal influence to the end that the Chamber may be the power for progress and advancement that it should be.

After the new officers had taken their places, routine business came up for discussion.

The Curfew

B. H. Truax and J. G. Walker, recently appointed a committee to meet with a committee from the Woman's Club to discuss a curfew law for South San Francisco, reported that though such meeting had been held there was little to report as to action taken. On motion of P. R. Thompson, the organization went on record as endorsing the curfew law. More definite action is expected at the next meeting.

Civic Association Election

P. R. Thompson brought to the attention of the Chamber the election of officers for the executive committee.

LONE BANDIT SHOT NEAR SAN BRUNO

Young Man Giving Name of J. Hoover Severely Wounded by Officers After Robbing Restaurant.

John Hoover, the young bandit who held up the Saddle Rock Restaurant in Santa Clara Monday evening and was shot in the thigh a few hours later by F. Milliken of the San Francisco police force, who overtook him near San Bruno, was taken to Santa Clara Wednesday to answer for the robbery of the restaurant from which he secured $12. Since his shooting by Officer Milliken the lone bandit has been in the Red Cross Hospital at San Mateo.

Hoover had stolen a large automobile, in which he had driven to Santa Clara just before the robbery of the restaurant. When he encountered the officers he was on his way to San Francisco. He was met at San Bruno by Milliken in company with Officer Fred Lotsey, also of the San Francisco police force, and Marshal William Wedell of San Bruno.

When halted by the officers, Hoover jumped from his machine, ran up a bank and turned on the police with a revolver. Officer Milliken then shot him in the left leg with a sawed-off shotgun. He was taken to the Red Cross Hospital in San Mateo, where the shot were extracted by Dr. N. D. Morrison.

The Santa Clara county officials took him to the Santa Clara county hospital, where he will be treated until he can answer to charges filed against him in that county. Hoover will not talk about himself. A complete burglar's outfit was found in his bag, including false whiskers which he used to disguise himself while holding up the restaurant.

MISS FERRARIO HURT IN AUTO COLLISION

Miss Rena Ferrario was treated by Dr. R. S. Irvine at the South San Francisco Hospital Monday evening about 4:30 for cuts around the face and slight bruises sustained in a collision at the corner of Linden and Grand avenues. Miss Ferrario and two girls named Costa were driving west on Grand avenue when at the corner of Linden they encountered a large car driven by A. C. Hughes of Salinas. Each car stopped as the other approached, then each started again, colliding at the intersection. The cars were slightly damaged, but nobody beside the Ferrario girl was hurt.

P. R. THOMPSON PRES. CIVIC LEAGUE

ELECTION IN SAN FRANCISCO THURSDAY NIGHTS PUTS MAN WELL KNOWN HERE AT HEAD OF IMPORTANT ORGANIZATION.

At the annual election of officers of the Civic Leagues Association of San Francisco, held Thursday night in the city, P. R. Thompson, traffic manager of the Pacific Coast Steel Company, was chosen president for the year of 1920. Eleven delegates from the local Chamber of Commerce and the Manufacturers' Association of South San Francisco, both of which organizations are members of the Civic League, attended the meeting and took part in the election.

Mr. Thompson's election is of considerable importance to this city and of great interest to his wide circle of friends here. He is a member of the Manufacturers' Association, of the Chamber of Commerce, and of the Industrial Club, all of this city, and has played an important part in the progress and upbuilding of South San Francisco. Mr. Thompson is also prominent in the civic and industrial life of San Francisco. The election Thursday night was held in the Phelan building and the choice of the many members present fell on Mr. Thompson by unanimous vote.

LOSES LEG UNDER CAR AT STEEL MILL

Wilbert S. Davidson of 1325 Balboa avenue, Burlingame, had his right leg so severely crushed under a car at the Pacific Coast Steel Company's plant Monday that amputation was decided upon as necessary to save the man's life. The leg was accordingly removed at the South San Francisco Hospital. Davidson, in stepping off the engine, fell beneath the wheels. He was immediately rushed to the hospital. It is reported at the hospital that the injured man is doing as well as could be expected.

BANK, CATTLE LOAN EMPLOYEES BANQUET

W. H. Coffinberry, president of the Bank of South San Francisco and also president of the San Francisco Cattle Loan Company, whose head offices are in the local bank building, acted as host to the employees of both institutions at the annual dinner held Monday evening. The event also marked Mr. Coffinberry's twenty-seventh anniversary in the banking business.

The dinner was served at Uncle Tom's Cabin, San Bruno, and beside the host was attended by the following:

Bank—	Cattle Loan Co.—
H. L. Haaker	W. E. Hough
D. W. Ratto	H. A. Bewley
O. E. Hempstead	J. F. Mager
Chas. Genasci	F. R. Burrell
M. W. Carden	Robt. T. F. Smith
E. N. Fourcans

The Bank of South San Francisco and the San Francisco Cattle Loan Company are both important factors in the commercial life of this city, and beside business connections reaching throughout California, serve as well the states of Nevada, Arizona, and Oregon. The combined assets of the two institutions exceed $5,000,000.

A word to the wise: ADVERTISE IN THE ENTERPRISE.

DR. MCGOVERN WILL HEAD C. OF C.

mittee of the Civic Associations, to be held in San Francisco January 15th, and urged the delegates from the South San Francisco Chamber of Commerce to be present.

Tree Planting

A. McSweeney, recently appointed a committee to urge upon the city trustees the planting of trees in the parkways about town, reported he had taken the matter up with the city officials and they had responded that they had no funds for this work. Asked for an opinion as to whether the trustees could levy an assessment on property owners for trees planted in front of their holdings, City Attorney Coleberd stated he believed they could. Mr. McSweeney was instructed to appoint a committee to assist him and make a survey of the city and report at the next meeting the streets in the city where the trees could be planted with an assurance of their thriving.

Littered Sidewalks

The unsightly condition of many sidewalks in the west end of town, where litter is permitted to accumulate on the walks, was brought to the attention of the chamber, and B. H. Truax was appointed a committeeman with power to select assistants to make a survey of the sidewalks mentioned and report their condition to the city trustees.

Poor Street Lights

B. H. Truax reported that street lights were needed at the corner of Butler avenue and San Bruno road, as many men came out from the factories to the highway at this point during the night and the lack of lights made the spot dangerous. The secretary was instructed to communicate with the city trustees and convey the endorsement of the chamber on the movement to get better lights at the place indicated.

By unanimous vote it was decided to have a permanent membership committee with E. C. Peck as chairman.

Adjournment was taken to January 26th.

VISITACION RESIDENTS COMPLAIN ABOUT GYPSIES

Residents of Visitacion Valley are seriously considering preferring charges of being a public nuisance against a band of gypsies that have been camped in the neighborhood for several weeks. It is claimed the camp is near the public road, that it is not screened in any way from passers by, that the camp has no sanitary conveniences and is a menace and a nuisance.

HAGE'S CAFE SOLD.

Hage's Cafe, one of the best-known eating houses in this city, changed hands this week when H. W. Hage sold out to Gus Nicholas, Hirstos, Bournalis, and Frank Drakos. The new owners are all practical restaurant men.

BIG SALES OF GOVERNMENT SECURITIES REPORTED

Christmas sales of war savings stamps and treasury savings certificates amounted close to $3,000,000 in the twelfth federal reserve district, according to a report made public by Theodore Hardee, director of the war organization for the district. The estimate is based on the heavy bank sales of these securities, which alone amounted to $872,800 for the period embraced between November 26th and December 31st. Postoffice sales as yet unreported will swell the total sales somewhere near the estimate, in the opinion of war loan officials.

Of the total bank sales during this period for the district, San Francisco subscribed 22.74 per cent, or $198,500. "When reports are all in," said C. A. Farnsworth, associate director of the war loan organization, "we are confident they will show for the Christmas period, roughly speaking for thirty days, heavier sales than for any month in 1919, thus swelling California's and the twelfth district's total subscriptions for 1919 considerably, and showing us well to the front in per capita investment in war savings securities as compared with other federal reserve districts."

The 1920 sales of government securities have started off well. Mrs. Florence I. Meyer, who is in charge of a war savings station in the Anglo and London Paris National Bank in San Francisco, reports sales as high as $900 a day since the first of the year and averaging somewhat over $700.

In addition to the war savings securities sales during 1920, the government is stressing the advantages of investment in Liberty Bonds at their present prices and advising persons, especially small investors who have some ready money, to snap up the bonds which are selling at various figures somewhat below par, not because they are worth less than their face value plus accrued interest, but because temporarily there happen to be many of them thrown on the market by speculators who are forced to liquidate assets. Financial experts are agreed that within a short time every issue of Liberty Bonds will not only reach par but no doubt bring a premium.

If you want to know if you are going to be a success or a failure in life you can easily find out. The test is simple and infallible. Are you able to save money? If not, drop out. You will fail as sure as you live. You may not think so, but you will. The seed of success is not in you.

S. F. PAPER SHOWS VIEWS FROM SCHAW-BATCHER PLANT

In its big "Fifty-fifth Annual" edition, issued Wednesday, the San Francisco Chronicle shows six views of launchings at the Schaw-Batcher shipyard in this city. The pictures are of the launchings of the West Cadron, West Aleta, West Kader, West Cahokia, West Cactus, and West Calera, all of which took place during 1919.

CHARLIE'S HORRID ADVENTURE.

Charlie Grant, the genial janitor of the bank building, had an adventure the other day of which he still thinks with a shudder. It all came about through Charlie's love for flowers and his attempts to coax into luxuriant growth some flowers in a box on the shady side of the big white building.
Charlie obtained some fertilizer in the city. It was a brand of plant food the magic quality of which in encouraging vegetable growth is surpassed only by its aroma. Charlie had a sack of it on a street car bringing it to his embryo garden when, as he lifted it to make room for a nice old lady with gray hair, the bottom fell out of the sack, leaving his priceless plant provender deposited on the floor of the car.
"What did you do?" asked the reporter.
"I decided I'd take another street car," Charlie replied. "It cost me an extra nickel, but I did not care to sit over that pile of fertilizer, and then, too, I thought the conductor might need it for his little garden at home."

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO A HISTORY

The trouble between the Franciscan friars and Don Jose Sanchez was doubtless caused by an antagonism very common in those early days, on the part of the civil and military powers of California, towards the Franciscan fathers, who were conducting the missions among the Indians.

A brief statement of the relations between the mission padres and the civil and military authorities, under both Spain and Mexico, will be of interest in this connection.

When in 1769 Spain decided to possess and occupy Alta California, His Most Catholic Majesty, Carlos III, King of Spain, appointed Gaspar de Portola as governor and military commander, with authority to explore, govern and defend for Spain in the new country, and at the same time chose Padre Junipero Serra of the Franciscan order as spiritual leader, with authority to establish and maintain missions to civilize and Christianize the savage natives.

From July 16, 1769, to August 25, 1823, twenty-one missions were established and located about one day's journey apart along the coast from San Diego to Sonoma.

These missions were generally situated in beautiful valleys, and the extensive mission lands surrounding the buildings were the choicest lands of the new country.

At these missions the wild Indians of the surrounding country were gradually gathered by the Franciscan fathers, and, within a few years, naked savages were transformed into herdsmen, shepherds, farmers, spinners, weavers, artisans, builders, and into quiet, industrious Christian men and women.

At one time the missions owned 232,000 cattle, 268,000 sheep, 34,000 horses, 3500 mules, 8300 goats, and 3400 swine. From 1811 to 1834, under eleven years of Spanish government and twelve years of Mexican misgovernment, the missions maintained not only themselves, but also the entire cost of the whole military and civil government in Alta California.

Under Mexican rule, California governors had the power to make grants of lands, and these grants were usually made to favorites, mostly to men in the military service. The choice lands of the missions were coveted by both the civil and military classes, and out of this covetousness grew the opposition to the Franciscan fathers.

The hostility of Sanchez was, therefore, only an incident and part of the antagonism of his class towards the mission padres.

With Mexican control, began the ruin of the missions. Secularization became confiscation, and soon the Indians were dispersed and returned to savagery; their lands were taken over by private interests, and the mission buildings fell into decay and ruin.

Buri-Buri Rancho, the patent from the United States to the heirs of Jose Antonio Sanchez, covering all of Buri-Buri Rancho as surveyed and approved by the United States surveyor-general of California, was signed by the president of the United States, October 17, 1870, and was recorded in the office of the recorder of San Mateo county, December 9, 1872, in Vol. 1 of patents, pp. 377 to 392, inclusive.

Buri-Buri Rancho is described in the records of the United States survey as: "That tract of land in the county of San Mateo, known as Buri-Buri or Sanchez Rancho, bounded east by the bay of San Francisco, north by the Visitacion Rancho, the De Haro Rancho and public land, west by the San Pedro Rancho, and south by the San Mateo Rancho."

Prior to the decree of partition of the lands of Buri-Buri Rancho, the heirs of Jose Antonio Sanchez conveyed to various purchasers acreage tracts in undivided interests, as tenants in common, and the resales incumbered the title to the rancho to the extent resulting in the partition suit, dated May 29, 1868. The decree of the court in said suit found that "Jose Antonio Sanchez in his lifetime was owner of the entire tract of land sought to be partitioned in this action; that Jose Antonio Sanchez died in 1843, leaving behind him and surviving as his children, viz: Francisco Sanchez, Ysidro Jose Sanchez, Jose Ysidro Sanchez, Manuel Sanchez, Jose de la Cruz Sanchez, Paula Sanchez, Barbara Sanchez, Julia Sanchez, Emilliana Sanchez, and Hilaria Sanchez, and that said tract contains 14,639.10 acres."

The decree partitioned and set off: Under Jose de la Cruz Sanchez to D. O. Mills, 1463.91 acres.

Under Francisco Sanchez to Henry Miller, 1463.91 acres.

Under Barbara Sanchez to John Brooks, James Casey, Patrick Brooks, John Mullaly, E. W. Burr and others, 1463.91 acres.

Under Julia Sanchez to Francis Cunningham and O. McMahon, 1463.91 acres.

Under Paula Sanchez to John Gardner, James Casey, A. F. Green, Maria Tanforan, Antonio Valencia, Leobardo Valencia, Ignacio Montero, Joseph Cabannes and others, 1463.91 acres.

Under Hilaria Sanchez to Emily Tracy, William T. Coleman, S. S. Tilton, E. W. Burr and E. F. Northam, 1463.91 acres.

Under Emilliana Sanchez to John Gardner, Charles Lux, Peter O'Connor, William T. Coleman, P. Dupuy, Patrick Brooks, O. and P. McMahon and others, 1463.91 acres.

Under Ysidro Sanchez to Charles Lux, 1463.91 acres.

Under Jose Ysidro Sanchez to A. I. Easton, 1463.91 acres.

Under Manuel Sanchez to Eleanor and Emma Jones, Joseph and De Woody Jones, C. K. Garrison, Carrie Coleman, Soledad Sanchez M. de la Cruz Sanchez, Jose M. Sanchez, Maria C. S. Sanchez, Francisco Sanchez, Juan Sanchez and Ricardo Sanchez, 1463.91 acres.

'49 CELEBRATION PROGRESSES.

Since the last issue of this paper we are one week nearer the date of South San Francisco's monster celebration, known as "Coyote Gulch '49ers' Dance and Frontier Day," under the auspices of the Loyal Order of Moose, Saturday evening, February 14, 1920. Our fondest hopes have been more than realized.

Over twelve committees, supported by 500 earnest workers, have everything whipped into shape. All arrangements are now worked out, even to the most minute detail. Our committee on music has succeeded in engaging two big orchestras under the direct supervision of Walter G. Love of San Francisco, who is well known in musical circles.

Never before in this community has such an amount of money and thought been laid out for the musical end of a program. It was found necessary to place an order by wire to New York for special instruments to make this event true to name and in keeping with the days of '49.

Our musicians will be in '49 garb, lending an air of dash and bravado to their selections. They are skilled in the art of furnishing appropriate music for old-time dances, so, regardless of what you choose, there will be something that will meet your wishes, be it old or new.

While you listen to these quaint old airs and view the decorations, which will all be in keeping with the time, your mind will lead you back into the days gone by when our pioneers were carving their way through the wilderness in those history-making days. You will see and live again in the days before the gringo changed the customs of the land. You will hear the click of the Spanish dancer, as she tripped to the melody of the mandolin and guitar at the fandango. You will see the miner shake the golden dust on the bar in exchange for that beverage which flowed so freely in the dance halls in bygone days.

The Indian will be made first to fill his glass with gleaming nuggets before it is refilled with the firewater that inspired him to give that blood-curdling war-whoop that only too often brought chills creeping over the lonely miner, as he turned over in his blankets far up the gulch.

You will see the vaquero in his velvet jacket sit in the game with the knight of the road who had caused many an overland stage to falter on its way.

This event will be a dramatic picture, rich in coloring, drawn on the broad canvas of the Golden West, America's romance land.

Under the western stars, treating with life in the early-day mining camps, the action of our celebration takes place.

A vivid, appealing play, full of thrilling incidents, mingled with the atmosphere of the West, the freedom of wide spaces, the danger of border life and the lure of gold.

This will be one of our most delightful events, a drama of human strivings and courage, human weakness and failing, of romance and adventure, intensified by the strange fascination of the desert.

A surprising opening will start the night of revelry off with a whirl.

Next week we will tell you all about our decorating scheme, which will involve hundreds of dollars' worth of rich ornaments and old weapons and equipment.

Skunk pelts are up 20 per cent. However, as soon as we start to skinning the profiteers the price will come down.

Eliminates Household Drudgery

Washing and Ironing lose their disagreeable features when done electrically.

The back-breaking scrubbing on the wash-board is entirely eliminated. The clothes are placed in the frothy soapsuds in the washing machine. You start the motor and in fifteen or twenty minutes the clothes are clean.

Next the power-driven wringer will help in the rinsing and bluing.

The only thing the Electric Washer will not do is hang the clothes on the line.

PERPETUAL ASSININITY.

On every hand there is an insistent demand that the peace treaty and the league of nations be disposed of in Washington. Everywhere you turn you hear some caustic remark concerning the perpetual assininity of our governmental and senatorial representatives in the national capitol. The patience of the American people is exhausted. They are time-weary of being held up to the ridicule of the civilized world by a little bunch of politicians whose chief aim in official life appears to be that of making faces at each other.

Our men in the trenches took the bit in their teeth and covered themselves with glory. Our representatives in Washington are mired in a sea of inaction and buck passing and are humiliating the nation which permits them to misrepresent it.

It is time for a final ruling on the peace treaty and the league of nations to be made. There is no reason under the sun why peace should not be concluded with the Teutonic nations. No reasonable person can object to an endorsement of the league of nations with reservations which protect the legitimate interests of the United States. There is every reason in the world why the senate should come out of its trance and take the definite action for which we have been waiting these many months. All intelligent people know that Europe today is again a seething volcano, and that only prompt and definite action by the United States can stabilize the situation. All Europe knows that the crass stupidity at Washington is the greatest possible aid to bolshevism.

Either the White House and the senate are mentally capable of effecting a reasonable compromise on the league of nations which would be acceptable to the people, or they are not. If they have the brains necessary for the performance of this duty, they should take final action at once. If they are mentally incapable of discharging their obligations to the people, they should resign and go home. There is not a man in Washington public life of either party who can not be replaced by another man just as good, and the sooner they give this fact permanent lodgment under their hats the better it will be for themselves and the country as a whole. We can put up with a reasonable amount of bluffing, fourflushing and braying in Washington, but perpetual assininity has quite lost its charm.

Get busy, or get out!

SHAMING THE DEVIL.

It is said that the devil always claims his own.

But there are times, we fear, when even the devil would hesitate to claim certain undesirable specimens of humanity masquerading in the guise of fair womanhood.

Out at Fort Sheridan, Illinois, are a large number of maimed and broken heroes who fought in the world war and came home nothing but battered wrecks. Some have no legs, or no arms, and others have neither legs or arms.

About twenty-five of these heroic but helpless men were invited recently to attend a musical in Chicago which was largely attended by the women of high society. Some of these women protested against the presence of the crippled soldiers who had given their all for their country, on the ground that the iodoform with which their wounds were dressed was distasteful to their aesthetic sense of smell. They even went so far as to write letters of protest to the lady who gave the musicale and invited the soldiers.

Did the devil smile?

He did not!

He hung his head in shame for those women.

NO LAW TO PUNISH.

In the recent raids by the government in which thousands of Reds were arrested, only aliens were taken into custody. Reds who could prove American citizenship were allowed to go unmolested. The reason? It appears that there is no federal law under which a Red who conspires to overthrow the government can be punished, IF HE IS AN AMERICAN CITIZEN.

If this lamentable state of affairs be true, nothing is to be gained by crying over spilled milk. But we can at least prevent the milk being spilled a second time. The situation is so grave as to demand immediate action by congress. Inaction at this time may produce fatal results at a later date.

Congress should immediately enact a law sufficiently drastic to effectually dispose of any person who conspires against the peace and security of the government, whether that person be a citizen or an alien. This is not a political question. It is a vital matter of safety to every law-abiding citizen of the United States. Speed up, gentlemen! A government that is worth having is worth safeguarding.

A clipping is going the rounds to the effect that wealth decreases rather than increases human happiness, and that millionaires who smile are rare. Perhaps—but we'll swap a few of our choicest artistic smiles any day for a million.

Our office devil modestly insists that the only way to restore women to normal in the matter of dress is to strike all males blind—except office devils.

A dollar a dozen is the prediction for January eggs in most parts of the country. Or was it a dollar each?

Sampson was the stoutest man. Answer, without hesitation—how did he die?

England and France are in complete international accord. That's more than America is, even with itself.

Mr. Lautze knows the garage business thoroughly and furthermore has secured the Ford agency for this city. He will move his family here from San Francisco as soon as he can secure a suitable location.

JOHN GAYNOR IS SENT TO AGNEWS

John Gaynor, a man of about 45 years, who has been living in this city for some months, was examined by Doctors Chapin and Ross of Redwood City Thursday, pronounced insane, and committed to the state asylum at Agnews. Judge Buck made the commitment. Little is known of the man. He has been at the South San Francisco Hospital for some time, following illness which affected him while working for the Western Meat Company. He was taken to Redwood City Thursday by Dr. R. S. PRACTICAL RECIPES

Under this heading The Enterprise will publish, from week to week, a series of excellent recipes written especially for this paper by a woman who has had a university training in domestic science and a wide experience in cooking in her own home. Every recipe has been thoroughly tested and will be found economical and palatable.

The explorer, whoever he was, who introduced the potato to the civilized world, deserves even at this late date a rising vote of thanks from all those who are trying to serve three square meals a day to their families and not go bankrupt. Potatoes are high, in comparison with other days, but not as high as meat. The potato is not a substitute for meat because starch and not protein is its main food substance, yet it is a food which possesses much nourishment and is palatable, wholesome, and "filling." where economy or health makes it necessary to reduce the amount of meat eaten, potatoes can well be used to form the base of the main dish served at a meal.

In the following recipes, which have been tried out in the home-economics kitchen of the United States Department of Agriculture, potatoes either help to make a little meat go a long way or else form the base of a palatable dish which contains no meat.

Potatoes with Cheese and Green Pepper

- 2 cups diced cooked potatoes.
- 1 tablespoon flour.
- 1 tablespoon fat.
- ½ cup milk.
- 1 teaspoon salt.
- ¼ teaspoon pepper.
- 1 green pepper cooked and chopped.
- ½ cup grated American cheese.
- ½ cup bread crumbs.

Make the sauce, using the fat, flour, milk, and seasoning. Mix the potato and the green pepper with the white sauce and cheese. Put in a baking dish and cover with the bread crumbs and brown in a hot oven.

Canned red pepper or pimiento can be used in place of the green pepper.

Potato Souffle

- 3 tablespoons fat.
- 2 tablespoons potato starch or flour.
- 2-3 cup milk or potato water.
- 1 cup riced potatoes.
- 1 teaspoon salt.
- ½ teaspoon pepper.
- ¼ teaspoon celery salt.
- ¼ teaspoon onion juice.
- 3 egg whites, beaten stiff.
- 3 egg yolks, well beaten.

Mix ingredients in order given and bake until firm in greased, covered baking dish in slow oven. This quantity serves five persons.

Potato Omelet

- 1 cup mashed potatoes.
- ¼ teaspoon pepper.
- 3 eggs.
- 3 tablespoons cream or milk.
- 1 teaspoon salt.

Wash eggs, and separate the whites and yolks. Add the yolks to the potatoes and beat until there are no lumps. Season with onion juice, if desired, and chopped parsley. Beat the whites until stiff and fold into the potato mixture. Put into a well-greased frying pan and bake in oven until brown. Then turn and fold on hot platter. Serve at once.

Potato and Cheese Molds

- 2 cups mashed potatoes.
- 4 tablespoons grated cheese.
- 2 tablespoons fat.
- ¼ cup milk.
- 1 teaspoon salt.

Melt fat in saucepan, add potatoes, and mix well; then add the milk and half the cheese and seasoning. Put into a greased baking dish, small ramekins, or baking cups, sprinkle the rest of the cheese on top and bake in a fairly quick oven about ten minutes.

Potato and Egg Mold

- 2 cups mashed potatoes.
 - 1 cup egg sauce.
- Mix the potatoes with the egg sauce and season. Put in baking dish or baking cups and bake until lightly browned. The egg sauce is made as follows:

Egg Sauce

- 1 cup milk.
- ½ tablespoon potato starch.
- 1 tablespoon fat.

THE PRACTICE OF MEDICINE

It is a fine profession, that of treating people who think they are ill, and curing them at so much per cure. It is more dignified than playing baseball and has greater money-making possibilities than even running a garage.

Every disciple of Escuwat'shisname loves to experiment. If you are a good subject for experiment, that is, if your case puzzles your doctor, keep away from a hospital—otherwise you may come out cured of something you did not have when you went in. Nearly every son of Adam on this bounding ball is a living testimonial to some doctor's successful experiments. Some who have been gathered into the Great Hence—but why go into disagreeable details? No doctor likes to have a patient affected with a malady he does not understand. It is unsatisfactory and humbling to his professional pride. Then, too, the man might get well and escape while he had some money left.

To the lay mind medical men are of two classes, our own family doctor and others. We do not waste much high-priced thought on the others, but when we meet our family doctor the thought comes to us that probably he is wondering how our stomachs are behaving, and whether our livers are going wrong in time to pay for the new tire his car needs. When he looks at us we have an uncomfortable feeling that he knows more about our inward works than anybody but ourselves ought to know. But perhaps he is only speculating as to when we are going to make the next payment on our long-standing bill.

Men of the medical profession are of much use in the world, yet their sphere of utility could be greatly enlarged. Think what a debt of gratitude humanity would owe them if they could cure the man who reads your paper over your shoulder in the street car; or the lady who used to sing and thinks she does yet. Think how grateful we could be to them if they would find a remedy for the man who goes about advertising the breweries with a breath that would knock down his fellow creatures three hundred yards away through the bushes; or the woman who appears upon the street in a waist cut so low we don't know whether the ornament in front is a brooch or a belt buckle. Oh, if they could but find and crucify the germ that causes taffy-haired youths to wear ties of such brilliant hue that they give our eyes bone spavin; or the microbe that makes the giddy girls who sit behind us in church giggle aloud when we wish to sleep and store up energy for the labors of the week ahead! Many such of our fellow beings are physically sound, their stomachs happy, and their livers in a cheerful frame of mind. But they will make nuisances of themselves; so if they persist in being of the kind whose absence would fill a long-felt want, why not let the doctors at them?

Every doctor has a nicely groomed person and well-upholstered presence. They have to be that way. Who would wish a small, shabby, red doctor with

HOW LOS ANGELES CARES FOR ITS UNFORTUNATES

Los Angeles is conducting a vigorous campaign to wipe out venereal disease, and at the same time give the unfortunate carriers of these maladies, both men and women, opportunity to get back to useful place in society.

Formerly, at Los Angeles when arrests were made for crimes involving moral turpitude, the men were allowed to go free, while the women were released on trifling bail.

At first, under the new order, both men and women were held under $1000 bonds. As such comparatively large bonds were from time to time forfeited, the practice now is to hold the prisoners without bonds until they can be given medical examination. Men found to be suffering from venereal disease are held until cured beyond danger of infecting others.

The women are examined by a woman physician. If found to be suffering from vice disease, they are sent to Los Feliz Hospital. There they are given the best possible medical attention. They are usually kept about five weeks. On release, arrangements are made for continued treatment without cost to them. But no girl is released until a place has been found for her to go. Some are given positions; others return to their parents. For those who have no place of their own to go, the women of Los Angeles have established, and are maintaining, what is known as the Barton Training Home.

This institution has accommodations large ears and a wen on his neck tinkering with his intimate internals? Though all who practice medicine have here been referred to as doctors, they are really divided into three classes: doctors, physicians, and specialists.

The doctor is a plain sort of man about the size of an insurance agent. He listens cheerfully to your own diagnosis of your case, tells you a funny story, gives you a white powder to take before meals, slaps you on the back, and tells you to go your way and sin some more.

The physician is more studiously dressed than the doctor, wears glasses and carefully trimmed whiskers. He puts a thing like a wireless receiver against your chest and tries to get an S. O. S. from your carburetor. Then he writes out a prescription in Latin that may be for rat poison so far as you know, and tells you to come back to-morrow. And you know if you do he will charge you double.

The specialist is the king-pin of them all. He's the thirty-third degree High Waxy Wampus of the profession. He is not so stout as the doctor, but is taller and has longer whiskers than the physician. He wears a Prince Albert coat, and that costs you $2.50 a visit. You have to wait three hours in his outer office while a long train of ailing humanity in various stages of decrepitude and dissolution files past. At last you are admitted to his private drawing—and quartering—room, and by the time he has finished with you a large part of your anatomy and all your bank account has been removed.

Verily, the Lord taketh care of the lame and the lazy, but the medical men collect the bills. R. S.

DISTINGUISHED LECTURER SPEAKS AT HIGH SCHOOL

Dr. H. C. Bryant of the University of California, and in charge of educational work in connection with the Fish and Game Commission, lectured before the newly organized science class at the local high school Wednesday evening. His subject was, "Common Birds of South San Francisco." The lecture, held in the assembly room after school hours, was attended by about thirty students. After the lecture the science class held a spread. During the afternoon and evening Dr. Bryant visited Dr. and Mrs. F. S. Dolley and later took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Speed. Dr. Bryant, Dr. Dolley, Mrs. Dolley and Mrs. Speed attended Pomona College together.

for thirty girls. It is kept up by private subscriptions, receiving no help either from the city or the county. Girls sent to it are placed under two years' probation, although they do not necessarily remain in the home for the full period. They are taught cooking and housework. Arrangements are now under way to have them taught useful trades. Each girl is given a separate room, and, although they are virtually prisoners, they are all on their honor and enjoy freedom from restraint that is extraordinary. There are few abuses of these privileges. Indeed, the girls are taught to regard the home as a place to which they are at all times welcome to return. Girls who continue to live at the home after obtaining outside employment, pay $3 a week board. Once admitted to this institution, the girl is made to feel there is one place on earth where the door is always open for her.

Last year, 166 girls passed through the Barton Home. Of these, 125 are reported to be making good, while 25 are not accounted for.

That prediction of cheaper clothing sounds fine to some of us who have been taking inventory of last winter's overcoat.

PACKING TOWN NEWS

At an important meeting of the Welfare Club, held last Monday evening, plans were formulated for extensive activities during the coming year. A committee, consisting of M. F. McCollm, Patrick J. Bowler, and Alex Welte, was appointed to work out a plan which would result in the publication of a plant newspaper twice a month.

A smoker and jinks will be held in the clubrooms Tuesday evening, January 20th. Some good bouts are on the bill, in addition to several other interesting numbers. Admission will be free to all employees. Tuesday, January 27th, the first whist party of the year will take place. An active committee is working hard to make it a successful and interesting affair, and many valuable prizes are waiting for the lucky ones.

The actual welfare work of the club is keeping pace with its social activities. During the Thanksgiving and Christmas season turkeys were given to several families, where sickness or death had removed the breadwinner. Sick and disabled employees are kept in touch with and family conditions investigated, with the view of rendering any assistance possible.

WHY I AM A SCOUT

(By Leland M. Burge.)

I am a Scout because a Scout is trustworthy. He can be trusted by any person. If he can not be trusted on his honor, he may be ordered to give up his Scout badge.

I am a Scout because a Scout is cheerful. He tries to make other people happy. He thinks of other people before himself. If his tooth hurts, he does not grumble about it. He tries to be as cheerful and happy as his companion who hasn't a toothache. A Scout is not as cheerful as he could be at times. But he tries to be as cheerful as possible.

I am a Scout because a Scout is clean in body and thought. He wants clean and fair sport. A Scout has clean habits and travels with a clean and courteous crowd.

I am a Scout because a Scout has courage to face danger, or to save life against threats. If he is defeated, he is not downhearted. If he fails to get anything the first time, he tries until he does get it.

When a man is sick he wonders if there is another man on earth capable of continuing his business in case he shuffles off.

TRUSTEES MEET IN REGULAR SESSION

The amendment to city ordinance No. 14 relating to the licensing of plumbers operating in San Bruno was given its second reading at the meeting of the city trustees Wednesday night. By this amendment San Bruno plumbers will be required to pay an annual license of $25. This amendment also deals with the materials a plumber is required to use and creates the office of plumbing inspector.

Several protests against the assessments for weed-cleaning were heard at the meeting. Street Superintendent Lund explained that the reason some lots were assessed more than others was that the amount was fixed by the time required to clean off the lots, some requiring much more time than others.

A somewhat heated discussion was started by several of those present taking part in a protest against the unsanitary conditions surrounding the home of a family living in San Bruno. This family, it was brought out, keeps cows, horses, and poultry under conditions that violate city ordinances governing sanitation. Chairman Traeger of the board stated this family had been warned before. The matter was settled by the health officer being instructed to make another investigation of the premises complained of and, if necessary, bring proceedings against the persons responsible for the unsanitary conditions.

Reports of city officers for December were read and approved.

JANUARY 17 BIRTHDAY OF BENJAMIN FRANKLIN

Tomorrow will be Benjamin Franklin's birthday. In hundreds of school-rooms throughout the West his life and deeds and teachings will be reviewed and the lessons and philosophy which he expounded will be impressed on the minds of the children of the twentieth century—a century whose greatest need, perhaps, is to follow the way marked out by this "First American" nearly two hundred years ago. For the nation which Benjamin Franklin helped build is saddled with the greatest debt in its history—$26,000,000,000.

Benjamin Franklin was born January 17, 1706. He lived to be 84 years old, and in that span of years he helped write the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States and rendered perhaps as valuable a service to his young country as any man of his time save Washington.

Franklin epitomized America—so much so that the Encyclopedia Britannica characterizes him as the "First American." He rose from a poor apprentice printer boy to a position in which the world had to conjure with his name. He was artisan, scholar, diplomat, statesman, scientist, author, American.

Despite all of his accomplishments, however, his popular fame today rests on his personal thrift and his thrift philosophy. Today, 214 years after Franklin's birth, America is turning more and more to his way of life, recognizing that the truths he taught are the nation's salvation.

Governor Stephens Wednesday issued a Thrift Week proclamation, as follows:

Whereas, A systematic practice of putting aside a certain portion of one's income to provide for the future is one of the essentials to the highest development of citizenship; and

INSTITUTION FIGHTS COBURN WILL SUITS

The legal complications that enmesh the estate of Loren Coburn of Pescadero became more complex Wednesday when the Old People's Home of San Francisco filed a demurrer to the will contests. Through Attorney Charles F. Hanlon the home corporation protested against any attack on Coburn's will, which left $10,000 to the institution. Heretofore only C. H. Widemann, Judge J. A. Bardin, and John H. McNab, the main heirs to the estate, opposed the contest.
